AFI 34-219, 9 Sep 98, is supplemented as follows:

1.2. All requests for exceptions as outlined in Figure 1.1. will be submitted to the 437th Support Group Commander (437 SPTG/CC) through 437 SVS/CC and 437 AW/JA. Each request must have an AF Form 1768, Staff Summary Sheet, attached with full explanation/documentation provided.

1.5.1. Hours of operation for sale, dispensing, and consumption of alcoholic and malt beverages are set so as to provide reasonable service and access to facilities while meeting the needs of the majority of military personnel on Charleston Air Force Base. To ensure this is being done, all hours of operation or changes in the hours of operation will be submitted to the SPTG Commander, in writing, who will then approve/disapprove them. Hours of operation will be posted at the individual facilities.

2.1. Alcoholic beverages, to include beer and wine, will not be sold, possessed, dispensed, or consumed on Charleston AFB except in the following places as indicated in Figure 1.1., unless authorized by the SPTG Commander. In accordance with South Carolina State Law on drinking, an adult on Charleston AFB is a person 21 years of age or older. Liquor, beer, and wine may be sold to and consumed by adults. The CAFB golf course and bowling center are authorized to sell beer, wine, and distilled spirits or miniatures for on-premise consumption to authorized patrons during all operating hours.

2.1.6. Alcoholic beverages and beer may be served at the picnic area, or other Services facilities, if catered by Services on special occasions/events, or special parties under controlled conditions as approved by the SPTG Commander. Alcoholic beverages will not be sold/served at youth games. Beer and other alcohol may be stored and consumed by adults and military personnel 21 years of age or older in government quarters. Patrons may not bring food or beverages (alcohol or non alcoholic) into Services activities which sell food or beverages.
